

Discussion questions

1. How are women still underrepresented in American politics today?
2. How did opponents to women's suffrage state their opposition? How was it answered?
3. Where did the 1913 "Votes for Women" pilgrimage begin and end?
4. Did women participate in the political process before they could vote? If so, how?
5. Was the right to vote universally embraced by women?
6. What judges in your county are female? What judges in Ohio are female?