

Discussion questions

1. How would the different types of soil, landscapes, and rock-beds affect how well a plant grows?
2. What constitutes whether a plant is “invasive”? What identifying characteristics must it have in order to be considered invasive?
3. What efforts and being taken to preserve Ohio’s native species and habitats?