

Discussion questions

1. How would escaped slaves navigate the underground railroad on their way north?
2. Where would those travelling through the underground railroad settle after their travels?
3. What towns and cities in Ohio did escaped slaves pass through on their way north?
4. Where would underground railroad conductors hide escaped slaves?
5. Are there any underground railroad stops in your county that still exist and can be visited?